

TITI ECO FARM RESORT – A DESTINATION FOR LEISURE AND HEALTHY LIVING

TITI Eco Farm is just a 90-minute drive from Kuala Lumpur.

Merely 90 minutes drive from Kuala Lumpur, TITI Eco Farm Resort is a destination where tourists can kill two birds with one stone – to spend leisure time with family and friends, as well as to live an organic lifestyle.

Amidst lush greenery and breathtaking nature, the main attractions of this resort include a 40-acre land planted with vegetables and fruits organically, as well as resort-styled accommodation.

TITI Eco Farm Resort is the perfect holiday destination for those who are health conscious. Guests get the opportunity to enjoy fresh organic food harvested directly from the farm. It is processed and refined as little as possible before being served to maintain its natural integrity and nutrition.

Guests will be given an informative guided tour of the farm, where they'll also get to feed rabbits, observe ostrich, sample aloe vera and ulam (young leaves). Youngsters who like adventure activities can try crossing a hanging bridge or swinging from one side of a pond to another. Besides that, guests will be brought to vegetable farms and try their hand at harvesting organic vegetables.

The wood lodge is the main building. It consists of guest rooms, reception area, cafeteria, a small shop selling organic products, kitchen and dining area. When food is ready to be served, the staff will ring the bell.

An in-house nutritionist will share information on the benefits of eating organic food. All kinds of organic leaves will be served on the table and tourists will get the opportunity to sample salad made up of various organic foods, such as signature ulam, ulam raja, basil and papaya pickled products.
