

RAINFOREST WORLD MUSIC FESTIVAL 2008

Held against the magnificent backdrop of Sarawak's Mount Santubong, the Rainforest World Music Festival is one of the state's most popular and renowned events that never failed to perform to sell-out crowds since its introduction in 1997.

For three-days of tuneful bliss, world music performers from the world converge at the Sarawak Cultural Village to strut their musical prowess to tens of thousands of enthusiastic fans flooding the venue.

Again, this year is expected to offer yet another spectacular show. Performers that have to date confirmed their participation are:

- Ross Daly Quartet (Greece)
- Kasai Masai (Congo/UK)
- Hiroshi Motofuji (Japan)
- Oikyataan (India)
- Cholo Valderamma (Colombia)
- New Rope String Band (UK)
- Yakande (Gambia/Guinea)
- Pinikpikan (Philippines)
- Adel Salameh (Palestine)
- Fadomorse (Portugal)
- Anak Jati Orchestra (Sarawak)
- Sarawak Cultural Village (Sarawak)
- Kani'd (Sarawak)
